NOTE 1.—This fee is to be charged whenever the property or the proceeds of the property of a deceased Indian subject are handed to a Consul, in his official capacity, either by the local authorities or by other persons, owing to there being no person legally competent according to the lex loci to claim such proceeds, which are consequently delivered to the Consul for distribution to the absent parties, either direct or through the Government of India.

NOTE 2.—The fee should also be charged on a valuation of any portion of the property which a Consular Officer may, in the exercise of his discretion, remit home. Trinkets, however, and other articles, including securities not exceeding the estimated value of Rs. 100 may be sent home without the charge of any commission; if exceeding that estimated value, and sent home without realisation on the spot, the commission of 2/2 per cent, must be charged on the whole estimated value.

NOTE 3.—The commission covers the correspondence, signing of receipts, payment of debts, and the ordinary duties incidental to acting as administrator, and to the distribution of the property to the parties legally entitled to it, or to its transmission to the Government of India, as the case may be. If, in the administration or distribution of the property of a deceased Indian subject, it is necessary for the Consul to perform any other service for which a special fee is provided by the table, he will charge the fee or fees for such service.

NOTE 4.—Stamps for the amount of the commission are to be affixed to the account of the estate rendered to the parties interested, or to the Government of India, as the case may be.

NOTE 5.—When, in the case of the death of Indian subject, a Consul is sent for owing to the absence of relatives, and he only makes arrangements for the temporary custody of the property of the deceased pending the arrival of relatives of persons who may be competent to take charge of it, or of instructions from such persons he will not charge the fee of 2½ per cent., but should charge, besides the fee for affixing his Consular seal, fees for his attendance at the house of the deceased as prescribed below.

NOTE 6.—Any money or articles belonging to estates taken charge of at a subordinate Consular post should be sent to the Superintending Consulate.

129. For performing functions similar to those specified in the preceding item in respect of the property situate in the country of the Consular Officer's residence of a person not being an Indian subject, nor a seaman dying intestate or, if not intestates in the absence of legally competent representatives of the deceased, when heirs in India are partly or wholly interested in such property.	2½ per cent, on gross value.

NOTE.—In cases in which the seal is placed on a document, the stamp to be affixed to such document in other cases it should be attached to a receipt to be given to the party paying the fee.

Part V—Fees for certain attendance by Consular Officers.

As a general rule, a Consular Officer is to attend out of office only on the application of the parties concerned, or of the local authority, and such attendance is to be at the discretion of the Consul and provided his official duties admit of his absence. In the case of shipwreck, or for the purpose of assisting a ship in distress, the Consul should attend without waiting for any special request, as his presence may conduce to every possible measure being taken for saving life, and on such occasion fees indicated against immediately following two items are not leviable, but his attendance should not be continued for any other purpose unless it is specially requested.

In the event of two Consular Officers attending out of Office, which should only occur in very special cases, or at the request of the parties, the fee for the attendance of the junior is to be half of the amount fixed by the Table, as he is to be looked upon as accompanying his senior in the capacity of a clerk. A pro-Consular Officer attending alone is a Consular Officer for the purposes of fees.

Attendance at the Consul's private residence, during the customary business hours of the place, is not to be considered as authorising the charge of the fee.

135. At a shipwreck or for the purpose of assisting a ship in distress, per diem	197·00
136. At a shipwreck, at request of parties interested, to assist or advise as to salvage, per day	275·75
137. At request of parties interested, or of local authorities, at the affixing or removing of seals on property of deceased persons, if absent for less than two hours	194·50
138. Ditto, ditto, for each additional hour or fraction thereof, Rs. 39·50 with a maximum per day of	393·75
139. At request of parties interested, or of local authorities at a valuation if absent for less than two hours	194·50
140. Ditto, ditto for each additional hour or fraction thereof, Rs. 39·50 with a maximum per day of	393·75
141. At request of parties interested, or local authorities at a sale if absent for less than two hours	197·00
142. Ditto, ditto, for each additional hour or fraction thereof, Rs. 39·50 with a maximum per day of	393·75
143. At request of parties interested, or of local authorities for the transaction, elsewhere than at the Consular office, of any duty for which a fee is leviable in addition to such fee for each hour, or fraction thereof, Rs. 39·50 with a maximum per day of	393·75
144. At the request of parties interested for the transaction of any duty for which a fee is leviable whether at the Consular office or at the Consular officer's residence, in addition to such fee, for each half hour or fraction thereof, if in the day time, that is to say, between the hours of 6 A.M. and 9 P.M. but not during the customary business hours of the place	23·75

NOTE.—The fee is leviable for any attendance on Sunday.

Matters in respect of which a fee is leviable

Rs. P.

PART VI—Fees to be taken in respect of certain other services which may be rendered by a Consular Officer, at his discretion.

145. For the transaction of any duty, for which a fee is leviable under any of these tables, whether at the Consular Office or at the Consular Officer's residence, in addition to such fee, for each half hour, or fraction thereof in the night time, that is to say, between the hours of 9 P.M. and 6 A.M.	47'2
146. For drawing a declaration or other document or the body of a protest, or for taking down in writing verbal declarations or depositions of persons made before a Consular Officer, or for reducing into writing agreements made before him by contracting parties, exclusive of fees for attestation etc. if not exceeding 50 words.	15'75
147. If exceeding that number, for each subsequent 50 words, or fraction thereof.	6'30
148. For assisting in drawing up petitions, applications, or other documents not specified each.	2'75
149. For making or verifying a copy of a document, if not exceeding 100 words exclusive of fee for certificate.	8'00
150. If exceeding that number, for every subsequent 100 words or fraction thereof	6'30
151. For making or verifying a translation of a document, for every 100 words, or fraction thereof, exclusive of fee for certificate	23'75
152. For making or verifying a translation of a document in Chinese or Japanese, for first 100 characters.	157'05
153. For making or verifying a translation of a document in Chinese or Japanese for every subsequent 100 characters, or fraction thereof	47'25
NOTE. —The services referred to in this fee and fees 151—153 and 154—158 are not considered as obligatory duties of a Consul; but as in many cases it may be desirable that he should perform them, if competent to do so, provision is made for fees to be charged.
154. Viva voce translating and interpreting for each 15 minutes, or fraction thereof, Rs. 15'75 with a maximum per hour of	47'25
NOTE 1. —This fee is not to be levied concurrently with fees indicated against the immediately preceding three items
NOTE 2. —This should not be levied when the interpreting is carried on solely to enable the Consul to execute any official duty, e.g., the composing of disputes.
155. For drawing a will, if not exceeding 200 words	94'50
156. If exceeding that number for every subsequent 100 words or fraction thereof.	23'75
157. For drawing a power-of-attorney, if not exceeding 200 words	47'25
158. If exceeding that number for every subsequent 100 words or fraction thereof	23'75
159. In cases where one or more attesting witnesses, besides a Consular Officer, are required, for each witness supplied by him at the request of the parties interested	9'50

NOTE 1.—As to the immediately following two items of fees the discretionary services for which they are chargeable are not to be undertaken except at the sole risk and responsibility of the parties requesting the same on condition of such parties signing the proper declaration.

NOTE 2.—A Consul is not bound to provide witness for persons desirous of signing document before him, but should the Consul, at the request of the parties, supply witnesses, he is to charge the fee for each witness supplied but not for each signature of such witnesses.

Matters in respect of which a fee is leviable	Rs. P.
160. Attendance elsewhere than at Consular office request at the request and on behalf of private persons, for the transaction of business which a Consular officer is permitted, but is not bound to undertake under the Consular instructions, for each hour, or fraction thereof, Rs. 39.50 with a maximum per day of	393.75
NOTE.—This fee is applicable when the attendance of the Consular officer is sought for the recovery of lost luggage or for similar reasons. It is not to be levied in respect of commercial enquiries.

- (2) The application shall be in writing and shall be signed—
- (a) (i) if the application is made by an individual, by the individual;
 - (ii) if the application is made on behalf of an undivided Hindu family, by the manager of such family;
 - (iii) if the application is made by a company or unincorporated body by the individual money-lender himself, or any other person having control of its principal place of business in the territory of India or of its place of business in the area in which it intends to carry on the business; or
 - (b) by an agent authorised in this behalf by a power of attorney by the individual money-lender himself, or the family, or the company or the unincorporated body, as the case may be.
- (3) The application shall also contain such other particulars as may be prescribed.
- (4) The application shall be accompanied by a licence fee at the following rates—

(a) If the place at which the business of money-lending is to be carried on is not more than one Rs. 5.

(b) If the business of money-lending is to be carried on at more than one place within the limits of the area of the Registrar. Rs. 5 for the licence for the principal place of business and Rs. 2 for the licence for each of the other places in the area:

Provided that where an application is made after the expiry of the period prescribed by rules in respect of such application, it shall be accompanied by a licence fee at double the rates specified above.

(5) The fee payable under this section shall be paid in the manner prescribed and shall not be refunded, notwithstanding the fact that the grant of licence is refused or the application is withdrawn.

7. Grant of Licence and entry in the register.—(1) On the receipt of any application under section 5 and after making a summary inquiry in accordance with the prescribed procedure, the Assistant Registrar shall forward the application, together with his report, to the Registrar. The Registrar may after making such further inquiry, if any, as he deems fit grant the applicant a licence in such form and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, and direct the Assistant Registrar to enter the name of such applicant in the register maintained by him under section 4.

If the application is in respect of more than one place of business in the area under the jurisdiction of the Registrar, a separate licence in respect of each such place shall be granted in the name of the applicant and the person responsible for the management of the business at such place.

(2) If the application also contains a request for the grant of a licence to carry on the business of money-lending at any place within the Union territory, but at a place outside the jurisdiction of the Registrar who granted the licence in respect of the principal place of business of the money-lender, the Registrar shall forward copies of the application and of the licence granted to the Registrar having jurisdiction who may grant a licence on payment of the licence fee provided for in section 6 without making any inquiry in respect of the application.

8. Refusal of issue of licence.—(1) The grant of licence shall not be refused except on any of the following grounds:—

- (a) that the applicant, or any person responsible or proposed to be responsible for the management of his business as a money-lender is disqualified from holding a licence;
- (b) that the applicant has not complied with the provisions of this Act or the rules in respect of an application for the grant of a licence;
- (c) that the applicant has made wilful default in complying with or knowingly acted in contravention of any requirement of this Act;
- (d) that satisfactory evidence has been produced that the applicant or any person responsible or proposed to be responsible for the management of his business of money-lending has—
 - (i) knowingly participated in or connived at any fraud or dishonesty in the conduct of or in connection with the business of money lending, or
 - (ii) been found guilty of an offence under Chapter XVII or sections 465, 477 or 477-A of Chapter XVIII of the Indian Penal Code (45 of 1860).

(2) The Registrar shall, before refusing a licence under sub-section (1) give to the applicant a reasonable opportunity of producing evidence, if any, in support of the application and of showing cause why the licence should not be refused: and record the evidence adduced before him and his reasons for such refusal.

(3) As appeal shall lie from an order of the Registrar refusing a licence under sub-section (1) to the Registrar General, whose decision shall be final.

8A. Registrar's power to cancel licences.—(1) The Registrar may, during the term of any licence, cancel the same by an order in writing on the ground that the person to whom it was granted has been guilty of any act or conduct for which he might under section 8 have refused him the grant of the licence and which act or conduct was not brought to his notice at the time of the grant.

(2) Before cancelling a licence under sub-section (1) the Registrar shall give notice in writing to the licensee and may hold such inquiry as may be necessary.

(3) An appeal shall lie from an order of the Registrar cancelling a licence under sub-section (1) to the Registrar General whose decision shall be final.

9. Term of licence.—A licence shall be valid from the date on which it is granted to the 31st day of March following:

Provided that when an application for renewal of a licence has been received by an Assistant Registrar within the prescribed period, the licence shall, until the application is finally disposed of, be deemed to be valid.

9A. Levy of inspection fee.—(1) An inspection fee shall in addition to the licence fee leviable under section 6 be levied from a money-lender applying for a renewal of a licence at the rate specified in the Schedule on the basis of the maximum capital utilised by him during the period of the licence sought to be renewed.

(2) In default of payment of an inspection fee leviable under sub-section (1), it shall be recoverable from the defaulter in the same manner as an arrear of land revenue.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section "maximum capital" means the highest total amount of the capital sum which may remain invested in the money lending business on any day during the period of a licence.

10 Stay of suits by money-lenders not holding licence.—(1) After the expiry of six months from the date on which this Act comes into force, no Court shall pass a decree in favour of a money-lender in any suit filed by a money-lender to which this Act applies unless the Court is satisfied that at the time when the loan or any part thereof to which the suit relates was advanced, the money-lender held a valid licence.

(2) If during the trial of any such suit, the Court finds that the money-lender has not held such licence, the Court may, on the application of the money-lender stay the hearing of the suit and require him to produce within a period of three months a licence on payment to the Registrar of all the arrears of the licence fees and the inspection fees payable by him under this Act for the period commencing from the date on which he started the business of money-lending or the expiry of six months from the date on which this Act comes into force, whichever is later, together with such penalty, not exceeding Rs. 500, as the Court may direct:

Provided that when the Court is satisfied that the failure of the money-lender to obtain a licence was due to any reasonable cause the Court may direct that no penalty as aforesaid or part of such penalty shall be paid by the money-lender.

(3) The Court may, on sufficient cause being shown, from time to time extend the period during which the money-lender shall be required to produce a licence.

(4) If the money-lender fails to produce the licence required under sub-section (2) within the period specified therein or within such period as may be extended under sub-section (3), the Court shall dismiss the suit. If the money-lender produces such licence within the aforesaid period, the Court shall proceed to hear the suit.

(5) Nothing in this section shall affect—

- (a) suits in respect of loans advanced by a money-lender before the date on which this Act comes into force;
- (b) the powers of an Official Assignee or a Court under the provisions of the Provincial Insolvency Act, 1920 (5 of 1920) or of a liquidator under the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956), to realise the property of a money-lender.

11. Entry in register and grant of licence to a money-lender directed to obtain licence under section 10.—Any money-lender who is required under sub-section (2) of section 10 to produce a licence shall make an application to the Registrar through the Assistant Registrar in the manner specified in section 6 and on receipt of such application the Registrar may, subject to the provisions of section 8, and after making such inquiry as he deems fit, grant the money-lender on payment of the arrears of licence fee, and the penalty, if any, directed by the Court to be paid, a licence in the form and subject to the conditions specified in section 7 and direct the Assistant Registrar to enter the name of the money-lender in the register.

12. Application for cancellation of licence.—(1) Any person may, during the currency of a licence, file an application, to the Registrar General for the cancellation of the licence issued to a money-lender on the ground that such money-lender has been guilty of any act or conduct for which the Registrar may under section 8 refuse him the grant of a licence. At the time of filing his application the said person shall deposit such amount not exceeding Rs. 100 as the Registrar General may deem fit.

(2) On the receipt of such application and deposit or of a report to that effect from an officer acting under section 13A the Registrar General shall hold an inquiry and if he is satisfied that the money-lender has been guilty of such act or conduct he may direct the Registrar to cancel the licence of the money-lender and may also direct the return of the deposit made under sub-section (1).

(3) If in the opinion of the Registrar General an application made under sub-section (1) is frivolous or vexatious, he may, out of the deposit made under sub-section (1), direct to be paid to the money-lender such amount as he deems fit as compensation.

13. Registrar General, Registrar and Assistant Registrar to have power of Civil court.—For the purposes of section 7 and 13A, the Registrar, Assistant Registrar and, as the case may be, the officer authorised under section 13A and for the purposes of section 12 the Registrar General, shall have and may exercise the same powers as are vested in a Civil Court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908) in respect of the following matters:—

- (a) enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath,
- (b) compelling the production of documents and material objects;
- (c) issuing commissions for the examination of witnesses; and
- (d) proof of facts by affidavits.

13A. Power of authorised officer to require production of records or documents.—For the purpose of verifying whether the business of money-lending is carried on in accordance with the provisions of this Act any Registrar, Assistant Registrar or any other officer authorised by the Administrator in this behalf may require any money-lender or any person in respect of whom the Registrar, Assistant Registrar or the officer so authorised has reason to believe that he is carrying on the business of money-lending in the Union territory to produce any record or document in his possession which in his opinion is relevant for the purpose and there upon such money-lender or person shall produce such record or document. The Registrar, Assistant Registrar or officer so authorised may after reasonable notice at any reasonable time enter any premises where he believes such record or document to be and may any question necessary for interpreting or verifying such record.

14. Court's power to cancel or suspend a licence.—(1)(i) A Court passing an order of conviction against a money-lender for an offence under this Act, or

(ii) A Court trying a suit to which this Act applies, if satisfied that such money-lender has committed such contravention of the provisions of this Act or, the rules as would, in its opinion, make him unfit to carry on the business of money-lending—

- (a) may order that all the licences held by such money-lender in the Union territory be cancelled or suspended for such time as it may think fit, and
- (b) may, if it thinks fit declare any such money-lender, or if money-lender is a Hindu undivided family a company or an unincorporated body, such family, company or body and also any person responsible for the management of the business of money-lending carried on by such family, company or body, to be disqualified from holding any licence in the Union territory for such time as the Court may think fit.

(2) Where a Court convicts a money-lender of an offence under this Act, or makes an order or declaration under clause (a) or (b) of subsection (1) it shall cause the particulars of the conviction, order or declaration, as the case may be to be endorsed on all the licences held by the money-lenders convicted or by any other person affected by the order or declaration and shall cause copies of its order or declaration to be sent to the Registrars by whom the licences were granted for the purpose of entering such particulars in the registers:

Provided that where any licence held by any money-lender is suspended or cancelled or any money-lender is disqualified from holding any licence under this section he may appeal against such order to the Court to which an appeal ordinarily lies from the decision of the Court passing the order; and the Court which passed the order or the Court of appeal may, if it thinks fit, pending the appeal, stay the operation of the order under this section.

(3) Any licence required by a Court for endorsement in accordance with subsection (2) shall be produced by the person by whom it is held in such manner and within such time as may be directed by the Court and any person who, without reasonable cause, makes default in producing the licence so required shall be liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding Rs 500 for each day for the period during which the default continues.

(4) Powers conferred on a Court under this section may be exercised by any Court in appeal or in revision.

15. No compensation for suspension or cancellation of licence.— Where any licence is suspended or cancelled under this Act, no person shall be entitled to any compensation or the refund of any licence fee.

16. Person debarred from doing business during period of suspension or cancellation of licence.—A person whose licence has been suspended or cancelled in accordance with the provisions of this Act shall, during the period of suspension or cancellation, as the case may be, be disqualified from holding any licence in the Union territory.

17. Person whose licence is suspended or cancelled not to apply without giving particulars of endorsement or of disqualification.—No person whose licence has been endorsed under section 14 or who has been disqualified from holding a licence shall apply for, or be eligible to hold a licence without giving particulars of such endorsement or disqualification.

18 Duty of money-lenders to keep accounts, and furnish copies.—(1) Every money-lender shall keep and maintain a cash book and a ledger in such form and in such manner as may be prescribed.

(2) Every money-lender shall—

(a) deliver or cause to be delivered—

(i) to the debtor within 30 days from the date on which a loan is made, a statement in any recognised language showing in clear and distinct terms the amount and date of the loan and of its maturity, the nature of the security, if any, for the loan, the name and address of the debtor and of the money-lender and the rate of interest charged :

Provided that no such statement shall be required to be delivered to a debtor if he is supplied by the money-lender with a pass book which shall be in the prescribed form and shall contain an up-to-date account of the transactions with the debtor;

(ii) to the Assistant Registrar, within the said period a statement containing the particulars referred to in clause (a)(i):

(b) upon repayment of a loan, mark indelibly every paper signed by the debtor with words indicating payment or cancellation, and discharge every mortgage, restore every pledge, return every note and cancel or reassign every assignment given by the debtor as security for the loan.

(2A) Notwithstanding anything contained in (a)(ii) of sub-section (2), the Administrator may by order in writing permit such class of money-lenders as may be specified in the order to deliver or cause to be delivered to the Assistant Registrar a statement containing the particulars referred to in clause (a)(i) of sub-section (2) in respect of all loans made during every such period as may be specified in the order. And upon the issue of such order a money-lender electing to deliver a periodical statement as provided in this sub-section shall deliver or cause to be delivered the same within a period of 30 days from the date of expiry of every such period.

(3) No money-lender shall receive any payment from a debtor on account of any loan without giving him a plain and complete receipt for the payment.

(4) No money-lender shall accept from a debtor any article as a pawn, pledge or security for a loan without giving him a plain signed receipt for the same with its description, estimated value, the amount of loan advanced against it and such other particulars as may be prescribed. Such money-lender shall maintain the duplicates of such receipts in a separate register.

19. Delivery of statement of accounts and copies thereof by money-lender.—

(1) Every money-lender shall deliver or cause to be delivered every year to each of his debtors a legible statement of such debtor's accounts signed by the money-lender or his agent of any amount that may be outstanding against such debtor. The statement shall show—

(i) the amount of principal, the amount of interest and the amount of fees referred to in section 19-A, separately, due to the money-lender at the beginning of the year;

(ii) the total amount of loans advanced during the year;

(iii) the total amount of repayments during the year; and

(iv) the amounts of principal and interest due at the end of the year.

The statement shall be signed by the money-lender, or his agent, and shall be in any recognised language. It shall be in such form and shall be supplied to the debtor on or before such date as may be prescribed :

Provided that no such statement shall be required to be delivered to a debtor if he is supplied by the money-lender with a pass book which shall be in the prescribed form and shall contain an up-to-date account of the transactions with the debtor.

The money-lender shall on or before the aforesaid date deliver or cause to be delivered a statement containing the particulars specified in clauses (i) to (iv) to the Assistant Registrar.

(2) In respect of any particular loan, whether advanced before or after the date on which this Act comes into force, the money-lender shall, on demand in writing being made by the debtor at any time during the period when the loan or any part thereof has not been repaid, and on payment of the prescribed fee supply to the debtor, or if the debtor so requires to any person specified in that behalf in the demand, a statement, in any recognised language, signed by the money-lender or his agent, and containing the relevant particulars specified in sub-section (1).

(3) A money-lender shall, on demand in writing by the debtor, and tender of the prescribed sum of expenses, supply a copy of any document relating to a loan made by him or any security therefor to the debtor, or if the debtor so requires to any person specified in that behalf in the demand.

(4) For the purposes of this section, "year" means the year for which the accounts of the money-lender are ordinarily maintained in his own books.

19-A Fees for certain statements supplied to debtors and Assistant Registrars.—

(1) A money-lender may recover from a debtor fees for the statements or a pass book supplied to him under sub-section (2) of section 18 or sub-section (1) of section 19 and in respect of copies of such statements supplied to the Assistant Registrar under the said sub-section or in respect of copies of statements supplied to him under sub-section (2A) of section 18.

(2) Such fees shall be recoverable at such rates and in such manner as may be prescribed, subject to the maximum of two rupees per debtor, per year, irrespective of the number of statements or copies thereof supplied to the debtor or the Assistant Registrar during the relevant year.

20. Debtor not bound to admit correctness of accounts.—A debtor to whom a statement of accounts or a pass book has been furnished under section 19 shall not be bound to acknowledge or deny its correctness and his failure to do so shall not, by itself, be deemed to be an admission of the correctness of the accounts.

21. Procedure of Court in suit regarding loans.—Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, in any suit to which this Act applies—

(a) A Court shall, before deciding the claim on merits, frame and decide the issue whether the money-lender has complied with the provisions of sections 18 and 19;

(b) if the Court finds that the provisions of section 18 or section 19 have not been complied with by the money-lender, it may, if the plaintiff's claim is established, in whole or in part, disallow the whole or any portion of the interest found due, as may seem reasonable to it in the circumstances of the case and may disallow costs.

Explanation.—A money-lender who has given the receipt or furnished a statement of accounts or a pass book in the prescribed form and manner, shall be held to have complied with the provisions of section 18 or section 19, as the case may be, in spite of any errors and omissions if the Court finds that such errors and omissions are not material or not made fraudulently.

22. Provisions of certain sections not to apply to loans made by company or unincorporated body exempted by Government.—Nothing in sections 18 to 21 shall apply to loans advanced by any company or unincorporated body which the Administrator may by notification in the Official Gazette exempt from the operation of those sections.

23. Power of Court to limit interest recoverable in certain cases.—Notwithstanding anything contained in any agreement or any law for the time being in force, no Court shall in respect of any loan whether advanced before or after the date on which this Act comes into force, decree, on account of interest, a sum greater than the principal of the loan due on the date of the decree.

24 Power of Court to direct payment of decretal amount by instalments.—Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908), the Court may, at any time, on application of a judgment-debtor, after notice to the decree-holder, direct that the amount of any decree passed against him whether before or after the date on which this Act comes into force, in respect of a loan, shall be paid in such number of instalments and subject to such conditions, and payable on such dates, as, having regard to the circumstances of the judgment-debtor and the amount of the decree, it considers fit

25. Limitation on rates of interest.—(1) The Administrator may from time to time by notification in the Official Gazette fix the maximum rates of interest for any local area or class of business of money-lending in respect of secured and unsecured loans.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, an agreement between a money-lender and a debtor for payment of interest at rates exceeding the maximum rates fixed by the Administrator under sub-section (1) shall be valid and no Court shall in any suit to which this Act applies award interest exceeding the said rates.

(3) If any money-lender or a person advancing a loan specified in sub-clause (g) of clause (9) of section 2 makes an oral or written demand or charges or receives from a debtor interest at rate exceeding the maximum rate fixed by the Administrator under sub-section (1) he shall, for the purposes of section 34, be deemed to have contravened the provisions of this Act.

26. Prohibition of charge for expenses on loans by money-lenders.—No money-lender shall receive from a debtor or intending debtor any sum other than reasonable costs of investigating title to the property, costs of stamp and registration of documents in cases where an agreement between the parties includes a stipulation that property is to be given as security or by way of mortgage and where both parties have agreed to such costs and reimbursement thereof or where such costs or charges are leviable under the provisions of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882 (4 of 1882), or any other law for the time being in force

27. Notice and information to be given on assignment of loan.—(1) Where a loan advanced, whether before or after the date on which this Act comes into force, or any interest of such loan or the benefit of any agreement made or security taken in respect of such loan or interest is assigned to any assignee, the assignor whether he is the money-lender by whom the money was lent or any person to whom the debt has been previously assigned, shall, before the assignment is made—

- (a) give the assignee notice in writing that the loan, interest, agreement or security is affected by the operation of this Act;
- (b) supply to the assignee all information necessary to enable him to comply with the provisions of this Act; and
- (c) give the debtor notice in writing of the assignment supplying the name and address of the assignee

(2) Any person acting in contravention of the provisions of sub-section (1) shall be liable to indemnify any other person who is prejudiced by the contravention.

28. Application of Act as respects assignees.—(1) Save as hereinafter provided where any debt due to a money-lender in respect of money lent by him whether before or after the date on which this Act comes into force or of interest on money so lent or of the benefit of any agreement made or security taken in respect of any such debt or interest has been assigned, the assignee shall be deemed to be the money-lender and all the provisions of this Act shall apply to such assignee as if he were the money-lender.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or in any other law for the time being in force where for any reason any such assignment is invalid and the debtor has made any payment of money or transfer of property on account of any loan which has been so assigned the assignee shall in respect of such payment or transfer be deemed to be the agent of the money-lender for all the purposes of this Act.

29. Reopening of transactions.—Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, the Court shall in any suit to which this Act applies, whether heard ex parte or otherwise—

- (a) reopen any transaction, or any account already taken between the parties;
- (b) take an account between the parties;
- (c) reduce the amount charged to the debtor in respect of any excessive interest;
- (d) if on taking accounts it is found that the money-lender has received more than what is due to him pass a decree in favour of the debtor in respect of such amount:

Provided that in the exercise of these powers, the Court shall not—

- (i) reopen any adjustment or agreement purporting to close previous dealings and to create new obligations which have been entered into by the parties or any person through whom they claim at a date more than six years from the date of the suit;
- (ii) do anything which affects any decree of a Court.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this section “excessive interest” means interest at a rate which contravenes any of the provisions of section 25.

30. Inquiry for taking accounts and declaring the amount due.—(1) Any debtor may make an application at any time to the Court whether the loan has or has not become payable for taking accounts and for declaring the amount due to the money-lender. Such application shall be in the prescribed form and accompanied by the prescribed fee.

(2) On receipt of such application the Court shall cause a notice of the application to be given to the money-lender.

(3) On the date fixed for the hearing of the application or on such date to which the hearing may be adjourned from time to time, the Court shall make an inquiry and shall after taking an account of the transactions between the parties pass an order declaring the amount, if any, still payable by the debtor to the money-lender in respect of the principal and interest, if any. In taking accounts under this section the Court shall follow the provisions of sections 18 to 29 and section 31-A.

31. Deposit in Court of money due to money-lender.—(1) At any time a debtor may tender to a money-lender any sum of money due from him to the money-lender in respect of a loan by way of principal interest or both.

(2) If the money-lender refuses to accept any sum so tendered, the debtor may deposit the said sum in Court to the account of the money-lender.

(3) The Court shall thereupon, cause written notice of the deposit to be served on the money-lender, and he may, on presenting a petition stating the sum then due in respect of the loan, and his willingness to accept the said sum, receive and appropriate it first towards the interest and the residue if any towards the principal.

(4) When the money-lender does not accept the sum, the Court shall appropriate the said sum first towards the interest and the residue if any towards the principal.

31A. When interest to be paid for entire month.—Notwithstanding any agreement between the parties or any law for the time being in force, when a statement is delivered or pass book is supplied to a debtor under section 19 or if accounts are taken under section 30 or a tender is made by a debtor to a money-lender in respect of a loan under section 31 before the sixteenth day of a calendar month, the interest due shall be calculated as payable for fifteen days of the said month, and if the statement is delivered or pass book is supplied or accounts are taken or tender is made on any subsequent day, then for the entire calendar month irrespective of the fact that such statement is delivered or pass book is supplied or such accounts are taken or such tender is made on any such day.

32. Entry of wrong sum in bond, etc. to be an offence.—(1) No money-lender shall take any promissory note, acknowledgment bond or other writing which does not state the actual amount of the loan, or which states such amount wrongly or execute any instrument in which blanks are left to be filled after execution.

(2) Whoever contravenes the provisions of subsection (1) shall, on conviction be punishable with fine which may extend to Rs. 1,000 or with imprisonment of either description which may extend to six months or with both.

33. Penalty for molestation.—(1) Whoever molests, or abets the molestation, of a debtor for the recovery of a debt due by him to a creditor shall, on conviction be punishable with imprisonment of either description which may extend to three months or with fine which may extend to Rs. 500 or with both.

G.S.R. 1811.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following rules to amend the Railway Service Commissions (Chairmen and Members) Recruitment Rules, 1965, namely:—

1. (1) These rules may be called the Railway Service Commissions (Chairmen and Members) Recruitment (Amendment) Rules, 1967.

(2) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.

2. In the Railway Service Commissions (Chairmen and Members) Recruitment Rules, 1965 (hereinafter referred to as the said rules), after rule 7, the following rule shall be inserted, namely:—

“8. Power to relax.—Where the Central Government is of the opinion that it is necessary or expedient so to do, it may, by order for reasons to be recorded in writing and in consultation with the Union Public Service Commission, relax any of the provisions of these rules with respect to any class or category of persons/posts.”

3. In the Schedule to the said rules,—

(i) in the entries relating to the post at serial No. 1, in the entries in columns 10 and 11, the word “ordinarily” shall be omitted;

(ii) in the entries relating to the post at serial No. 2, in the entries in columns 10 and 11, the word “ordinarily” shall be omitted;

(iii) for the existing “Note”, the following Notes shall be substituted, namely:—

“NOTE 1.—Either the Chairman or one Member of each Railway Service Commission shall be a retired Railway Officer who must have held office on the Railways for at least ten years. The above requirement would be satisfied by the appointment of a serving Railway Officer with the above experience as a Member of the Commission who would be eligible for such appointment by selection through the Union Public Service Commission subject to the condition that he has not more than four years to serve in his regular post and eventually retires in his capacity as such Member.

NOTE 2.—Retired Railway/Government Officers appointed as Members/Chairmen, Railway Service Commissions shall be permitted to draw separately pensions sanctioned to them subject to the condition that pay plus gross amount of pension and/or pensionary equivalent or other retirement benefits do not exceed the pay last drawn on retirement.

NOTE 3.—Serving Railway Officers appointed as Members, Railway Service Commission will draw pay in the scale of Rs. 1300—60—1600 (PS/AS). The pre-1931 entrants will, however, draw Rs. 1950 as fixed pay.”
